

PROJECT INFORMATION

i-Coach is a 36-months Erasmus+ project aiming to provide SMEs with the skills and competences needed to support the implementation of successful internship programmes via an innovative training course and methodology. The project also strives to foster the return on investment to enable small companies to benefit from work-based learning (WBL) and individual interns, or to successfully integrate them into their working environment.

LEARNING, TEACHING, TRAINING ACTIVITIES

Last July, the LTTA of the Icoah project was held in Milan: the event was hosted in the splendid venue made available by the Italian partner Ecole.

During three days of work, the partners were able to present to their colleagues the work carried out on their module, and it was very interesting to exchange opinions, make suggestions and find together the most suitable solutions for improving and perfecting the work carried out.

The presentations were all characterised by a high level of interactivity and practical sections that certainly made the training more interesting and stimulating.

The Modules are organised as follows:

Module 1 – Pedagogy, teaching principles, learning processes

Module 2 – Communication and active listening

Module 3 – Organization and time management

Module 4 – Motivating and encouraging interns

Module 5 – Emotional intelligence

Module 6 – Internship promotion
